

Razanj is a small, northern Dalmatian place between Primosten and Rogoznica, 30 km from Sibenik. Since this traditional fishing settlement has taken advantage of its beautiful shores with rocky beaches, many tourists who look for peace and quiet spend their holidays in its private houses and pensions. The nearest bank, post office and pharmacy are 15 km away in Primosten, whereas restaurants can be found in Rogoznica nearby. Therefore, Razanj is perfect for those looking to spend their holidays surrounded by unspoiled nature. The crystal clear sea, far from tourist complexes and camping sites, is great for water sports, while there are small concrete docking places in front of private houses. You can truly relax and enjoy evening walks in the surroundings of Razanj.
